OLD SOLDIERS'

Annual Gathering Held On the Last Day of July.

A FEAST OF GOOD THINGS

Judge Williams Makes An Address at the Close.

(Special to The Times-Disputch.) PALMYRA, VA., August 1.-The last Saturday in July is "Old Soldiers' Day" in Fluvanna, and on that day gather together on the beanutiful court green at Palmyra men, women and children from every corner of the county to do honor to the surviving heroes of the Confederacy and to commemorate the dead Last Saturday a large crowd thronged the little village from "early morn till dewy eve." Every available spot was occupied, and horses and vehicles lined the highways leading into town from every direction. The morning hours were given to fraternal hand clasps and social converse on the green, while all who were able to crowd into the courthouse enjoyed hearing the "personal reminiscences" of the old soldlers.

No formal code of procedure was adopted for the meeting, the commandant, Colonel Henry E. Wood, calling on one after another of those who had answered to the roll call to "tell the boys something that happened during the war. Many amusing incidents and valuable historical data might be gathered from these informal talks of the old soldiers. Everybody brings a basket, a box or a

POLICE CHANGES.

Captain T. A. Johnson, whose resignation, tendered several months ago, went into effect at midnight last night. The promotion of Reynolds is one of the most popular actions of the new administration, the general public believing that he should have been at the head of the department several years ago.

The new chief is the oldest man in the service, having been appointed to the Warwick county force three years before the city was incorporated. He was made sergeant when the city was incorporated and the department reorganized in 1896.

sergeant when the city was incorporated and the department reorganized in 1896. During his thirteen years of service he has made an enviable reputation for himself as an officer and as a man. Particularly since he began plain clothes work three years ago his work has been up to the highest standard.

With the change of heads of the department Patrolman T. A. Mitchell becomes a sergeant, Bergeant B. J. O'Haragoes on duty as a detective-sergeant, and Sergeant J. E. Gray retains his position. Sergeant Mitchell was acting sergeant at the time former Chief S. J. Harwood was dismissed, four years ago. Mitchell, like Harwood, was an anti-administration man, and he was dismissed without having charges preferred against him. When the new administration assumed control man, and he was dismissed without having high charges preferred against him. When the new administration assumed control he was immediately reinstated.

Mayor Buxton to night sent a message to the City Council recommending the passage of an ordinance establishing a civil service board to examine all applicants for positions in the fire and police departments. The measure was referred to a committee. It is expected that the civil service idea will be carried out within a very short time.

After dinner on Saturday Judge Sam Williams addressed the old soldiers, and was listened to with much pleasure and enthusiasm. Judge Williams's presence had no political significance, as it is an understood thing that politics shall have no part nor lot in ''Old Soldiers' Day.' But late in the afternoon, I believe, Judge Williams did tell the people from the courthouse steps something of his political aims and aspirations.

The Judge won the good will of all who had the pleasure of meeting him or hearing the sound of his voice, but Fluvanna feels a special interest in and has the highest regard for Attorney-General Anderson, who is so firmly standing by us in our fight for the rallroad up the Rivanna, and our rights against the Chesapeake and Ohio Rallway Company.
